

Join the Many Rivers Team

Many Rivers has casual vacancies at both our Port Macquarie and Byron Bay offices. This is a great opportunity if you are looking for some casual work or potentially if you are looking to work with us on a long term basis and would like to experience our roles before making a full time application.

Roles Available

We currently have casual work available for administration staff and also staff interested in helping with our community engagement work.

Flexibility

We are open 8:30am - 5:00pm Monday to Friday and we are happy to be flexible depending on peoples availability.

About Many Rivers

Many Rivers is a leading not-for-profit Aboriginal Community Housing Provider. We recognise that housing is the foundation for wellbeing. We work with tenants and communities to provide safe, stable housing. Community development is at the heart of our service model.

Our partnerships are across northern NSW. Our footprint stretches over many nations from the Hunter Valley in the south, to the Tweed Coast in the north and inland to the Moree Plains and the New England.

We are an Aboriginal community-controlled, Indigenous Corporation. Culture is at the centre of everything we do.

Your Application

When completing the application, you will be asked to provide:

- Your most recent job details
- Whether you are interested in casual admin work or casual community engagement work
- Your qualifications
- Your date of birth
- Your current WWCC status and number
- A police check, or the ability to provide one
- Two referee details

Find out more

If you are interested in one of our casual positions, please complete the online application form or call our office to find out more! We look forward to hearing from you.

